REFERENCE

Ocado designs and builds the ground-breaking, game-changing technology solutions that power Ocado, the world's largest online-only grocery retailer.

To provide our services at the highest possible level, our employees need to communicate in foreign languages, especially within their area of work.

For more than two years Select Training Solutions s.c has been conducting training in English with Native Speakers. The commitment and professionalism of their teachers in conducting classes produces tangible results in the form of a significant improvement in knowledge of our specialists in Krakow and Wrocław.

With full confidence we can recommend Select to all those who are looking for a flexible and expert partner who knows how to meet the individual needs of the participants while achieving strategic goals.
